

SHE'S JUST STARTING

Marilyn at 30 Finds Kinsey Comforting

NEW YORK, June 2 (AP)—Marilyn Monroe flew here today from Hollywood for a rest between films. During the same time, her reported fiance, Playwright Arthur Miller, will await a Nevada divorce.

Marilyn was more willing to talk about how it feels to be 30 than she was to discuss romance with Miller.

"I'm here for a rest," she said. "I'm suffering from fatigue after filming 'Bus Stop' and I'm under doctor's orders."

Marilyn said she was thrilled to turn 30 yesterday because "Dr. Kinsey says a woman doesn't even get started until she's 30—and that is supposed to be factual." She said she got a few presents for her birthday, but she refused to say whether she received one from Miller.

Before boarding the plane in Los Angeles last night, Marilyn denied that she had "plans to get married."
